MUTUAL ACCOUNTABILITY DESK

EDITION 4

"When the Saints Go Marching Into Our Lives"

Stories of how the lives of witnesses to Jesus Christ impact our lives

The Mutual Accountability - aiming at deepening the mutual knowledge and reliability among Christian denominations - is the inspiration for a Centro Pro Unione formation project. The project MAD for Ecumenism establishes a Mutual Accountability Desk and is directed to all Christian confessions willing to cooperate in such inter-denominational joint venture and formation initiative.

The project

Sets micro-goals revolving around study, charity actions, worship, which are carried out in the format of modules. Each module develops according to three modalities: dislocation, sharing, spreading.

- ★ Dislocation: partners are free to work on the project by organizing their own timing, modalities and organizational details.
- ★ Sharing: at some stage there will be 2/3 plenary meetings where results, reflections and perspectives are put in common.
- ★ Spreading: means that at the end of the experience there will be an (official outcome) publication indicating the people involved in the group and the conclusions drawn, to constitute some growing archive.

Edition 4

The aim of M.A.D. 4 is to grow in Mutual Accountability by sharing story-telling about the way in which witnesses to Jesus Christ have impacted the life and/or shaped the faith of the Christian Community and has motivated them to mission.

Participants in the project

Members of the various Christian traditions present in Rome.

Members of various Christian traditions will present their contribution to the theme of M.A.D. 4: "When the Saints Go Marching Into Our Lives" – Stories of how the lives of witnesses to Jesus Christ impact our lives.

H.E. Bishop Brian Farrell, Secretary Emeritus of the Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity will open the session with a spiritual reflection.
